

WSES Read Across America Spirit Week

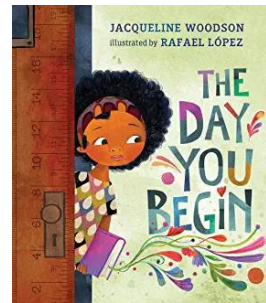

March 1st- March 5th, 2021

Read Across America is the National Educator Association's annual literacy awareness and reading motivation program that calls for every child in every community to celebrate reading. At WSES, we will be kicking off our Read Across America Challenge by celebrating all week. Join the celebration by reading with your child at home and visiting the suggested websites for great book ideas.

WSES Read Across America Spirit Week

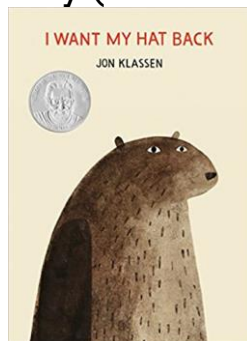

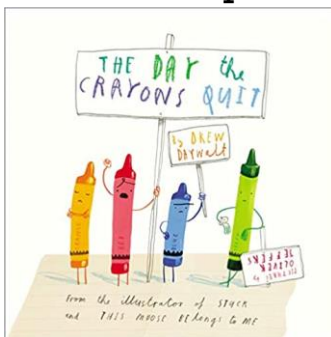

Read-Alouds, and fun throughout the week!

- The Day You Begin– Monday: Celebrate Jaqueline Woodson's book by wearing your favorite pajamas to begin our spirit week.
- Oh, the Places You've Been! – Tuesday: Celebrate the birthday of Dr. Seuss by wearing a t-shirt from a place you have been.
- Sports Day- Celebrate Poet Kwame Alexander's famous sports books by wearing your favorite sports shirt or jersey.
- I Want My Hat Back – Thursday: Celebrate Jon Klassen's famous book by wearing your favorite hat.
- The Day the Crayons Quit! – Friday: Celebrate Drew Daywalt's books by wearing your most colorful outfit or WSES spirit wear. See how many colors you can wear at one time!

How to support the reading initiative at home:

- ❖ Share a book with your child, or have your child share a book with you!
- ❖ Visit the public library (when it reopens) and sign up for a library card!

Check out the NEA Read Across America site

Questions? Contact our librarian, Mr. Rigsby: lsrigsby@fcps.edu or our reading specialist, Mrs. Carney: cmcarney@fcps.edu