

SUMMER READING OLYMPICS

Name: _____

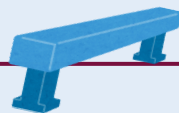

Grade: _____

Directions: Reading should be a fun year-round activity and for this summer , I hope you enjoy these Olympic-themed reading "events" I've set for you.

Complete as many of these events as you can and return this form at the start of the next school year to earn a small prize. Record the books you read on the back!

Happy Reading, Mrs. Stevenson

	Bronze	Silver	Gold
Track and Field	Event: Hurdles Don't give up on the first hurdle, finish a book you've started	Event: Relay Race Step 1: Read a book and pass it on to another reader Step 2: Read a book you've been given by another reader	Event: Marathon Read a LONG book for you!
Swimming and Diving	Read a book that is set near or on the water, on a boat, or underwater	Event: 800 meter race Set a PR* reading goal. Meet it. Break it. Celebrate it!	Event: Diving Dive into a new series or author
Gymnastics	Event: Balance Beam Balance out your screen time with a visit to the public library to check out some books.	Event: Parallel Bars Read a book with lots of twists and turns!	Event: Floor Exercise Stretch Your Mind: Read a book from a new genre
Olympic-Themed	Read a biography about an Olympic athlete or nonfiction book about a sport	Watch an Olympic Event and then talk or write about it with someone.	Read a book set in Paris, France

*PR = personal record

Directions: Write the title and author of the books you read to complete the Summer Reading Olympic Events below.

If you think it is a book we should have at the West Springfield Elementary School Library leave a  next to the title.

Title and Author